

Application for divorce

John Smith is applying to the court for a decree of divorce from Jane Jamed, and for financial orders.

Issued

05 February 2018

Reference number

LV17D80100

Applicant

John Smith

Respondent

Jane Jamed

About the marriage

Who the marriage is between

John Doe and Jenny Benny (as shown on the marriage certificate)

Where the marriage took place

In a church

Date of marriage

02 February 2001

Why the court can deal with the case (jurisdiction)

- The applicant and respondent are habitually resident in England and Wales.
- The applicant and respondent were last habitually resident in England and Wales and one of them still resides there.
- The applicant is habitually resident in England and Wales and has resided there for at least a year immediately prior to the presentation of the application.
- The applicant is domiciled and habitually resident in England and Wales and has resided there for at least six months immediately prior to the application.
- The applicant and respondent are both domiciled in England and Wales.

- The courts of England and Wales have residual jurisdiction, meaning either: no other court in any EU Member State has jurisdiction and either the Petitioner or the Respondent is domiciled in England and Wales; or (for same sex couples only) the Petitioner or the Respondent married each other in England and Wales, no other court in any EU Member State has jurisdiction, and it would be in the interests of justice for the court to assume jurisdiction in this case.

Other court cases that could affect jurisdiction

There are no other ongoing, completed or abandoned court cases related to the marriage, property or children.

Reason for the divorce

The marriage has broken down irretrievably, based on the fact that the respondent has deserted the applicant for a continuous period of at least two years immediately preceding the presentation of the application.

The applicant has given the date of desertion as 01 January 2011.

This is supported by the following statement from the applicant.

"My wife suddenly disappeared"

Additional applications

Costs orders

The applicant is not claiming the costs of the divorce.

Financial orders

The applicant is applying to the court for financial orders about how any property, money, pensions or other assets which you each have should be shared, for themselves and your children.

Applicant's correspondence address

82 Landor Road
London
SW9 9PE

Respondent's correspondence address

82 Landor Road
London
SW9 9PE

Statement of truth

"I believe that the facts stated in this application are true."

John Smith